

BUFC Coaching and Technical Positions 2016

Technical Department

Technical Director – Mens and Women’s Programme

- develop, implement, manage and evaluate the BUFC curriculum (style of play, and methodology) – club philosophy from juniors to seniors;
- monitor and evaluate annual coach plans, individual session plans and match assessments to ensure they are in line with the club philosophy;
- manage and implementation of coaching development programs;
- maximize coaching resources within the club through the implementation of appropriate coaching pathways;
- promotion of relevant coaching qualifications and coaching development opportunities for BUFC coaching staff - as well as providing advice and support on coaching matters;
- develop and implement guidelines, based on sound principles, on the balance between training and competition at the different stages of development;
- develop the capacities (technical, tactical, mental, physical, personal, lifestyle) of players to in order to maximize the experience of the players and their families at BUFC;
- oversee recruitment of key performance personnel and coaches using a selection framework that takes into account formal qualifications and BUFC philosophy;
- oversee the athlete recruitment process using athlete/player selection framework that takes into account feeder clubs and the BUFC Philosophy;
- oversee the implementation of training programs (Skill Acquisition and Blue Academy) that provide further development opportunities to BUFC players;
- establish and maintain strong professional relationships and communication with all stakeholders, including BUFC Board, coaches, players and affiliated clubs.

Assistant Technical Directors - Mens and Women’s Programme

- assist in the develop, implement, manage and evaluate the BUFC curriculum (style of play, and methodology) – club philosophy from juniors to seniors
- assist in the monitor and evaluate annual coach plans, individual session plans and match assessments;
- assist in the management and implementation of coaching development at the club;
- assist in the develop the capacities (technical, tactical, mental, physical, personal, lifestyle) of players to in order to maximize the experience of the players and their families at BUFC;
- establish and maintain strong professional relationships and communication with all stakeholders, including BUFC Board, coaches, players and affiliated clubs.

BUFC Coaching and Technical Positions 2016

Senior Coach – Men’s and Women’s Program (NPL Senior Team and Women’s PL Senior Team)

- Successfully plan, coordinate and deliver training and competition requirements of the senior NPL or WPL program;
- Ensure a positive high performance team environment and culture in line with the BUFC Philosophy;
- Provide high quality training and competition opportunities integrating contemporary trends and innovations into the daily training environment and competitive matches;
- Ensure a positive high performance team environment and culture in line with the BUFC Philosophy;
- Work with each Senior Coach in the program to provide opportunities to train and develop emerging athletes within a senior high performance environment;
- Manage a team of assistant coaches and work to deliver training, competition requirements and high performance outcomes;
- Ensure underpinning programs and player identification systems provide consistent and sustainable high performance talent pool;
- Ensure the recruitment of players is in line with the BUFC Philosophy and Club Culture.

Senior Mens NPL and Women’s PL

Senior Coach – Men’s and Women’s Program - (NPL U20, U18 - Women’s PL U19, U17 and Capital League)

- Successfully plan, coordinate and deliver training and competition requirements of the relevant NPL or WPL team;
- Provide high quality training and competition opportunities integrating contemporary trends and innovations into the daily training environment and competitive matches;
- Ensure a positive high performance team environment and culture in line with the BUFC Philosophy;
- Manage a team of assistant coaches and work to deliver training, competition requirements and high performance outcomes;
- Work with each coach in the senior program to provide opportunities to train and develop emerging athletes throughout each team within the senior high performance environment;
- Ensure player identification and development is consistent with the requirements of the first team;
- Ensure the recruitment of players is in line with the BUFC Philosophy and Club Culture.

Senior Assistant Coaches – Senior Men’s and Women’s Program - (NPL Senior Team, U20, U18 - Women’s PL Senior Team, U19, U17 and Capital League)

- Assist in the planning, coordinate and deliver training and competition requirements of the Senior Coaches NPL or WPL program in line with direction of the Senior Coaches;
- Assist in the delivery of the supporting programs in ensuring a consistent player development pathway to the first team;

BUFC Coaching and Technical Positions 2016

Head Coach – Junior NPL Program (U13, U14 and U16 NPL programs and U16 W BUDS)

- Successfully plan, coordinate and deliver training and competition requirements of the relevant Junior NPL age program;
- Ensure a positive high performance team environment and culture in line with the BUFC Philosophy;
- Ensure the delivery of training and competition requirements is line age and development related requirements (FFA Curriculum);
- Provide high quality training and competition opportunities integrating contemporary trends and innovations into the daily training environment and competitive matches;
- Oversee the management of the relevant age program which includes delivery of the NPL and BUDS team within relevant age group;
- Manage and work in conjunction with a team of Team and Assistant coaches and to deliver training, competition requirements and high performance outcomes;
- Work with each Coach in the junior program to identify emerging players and provide opportunities for promotion within the Junior development program and/or through to the senior program

Team Coach – Junior NPL Program (U13, U14 and U16 NPL or BUDS)

- Assist in the Head Coach in planning, coordinating and delivery of training and competition requirements of the relevant Junior NPL age team (NPL or BUDS);
- Ensure a positive high performance team environment and culture in line with the BUFC Philosophy;
- Assist in the delivery of training and competition requirements is line age and development related requirements (FFA Curriculum);
- Assist in providing high quality training and competition opportunities integrating contemporary trends and innovations into the daily training environment and competitive matches;
- Oversee the management of one team (NPL or BUDS) within the relevant age program;
- Work in conjunction with the Head Coach to deliver training, competition requirements and high performance outcomes;
- Work with each Coach in the junior program to identify emerging players and provide opportunities for promotion within the Junior development program

Assistant Coach – Junior NPL Program (U13, U14 and U16 NPL or BUDS and U16 W BUDS)

- Assist in the Head Coach and Team in planning, coordinating and delivery of training and competition requirements of the relevant Junior NPL age team (NPL or BUDS);

Junior NPL